Fountain House Gallery Presents “Small Works: $100 & Under”

On view: October 27 – December 22, 2016

Reception: October 27, 6-8 p.m.

NEW YORK CITY – Fountain House Gallery, located at 702 Ninth Avenue and representing artists living with mental illness, announces the upcoming show “Small Works: $100 & Under.” The exhibition will open with a Reception on October 27, 2016, from 6:00 p.m. to 8:00 p.m., and will remain on view through December 22, 2016.

Past Fountain House Gallery “Small Works” shows have been a rousing success with holiday shoppers and collectors. This exhibition features dozens of small-scale works, sized at 5 by 7 inches or less, which can be purchased “off the wall” and fit conveniently in a tote bag or briefcase. Among the mediums represented are collage, mixed media, acrylic and watercolor painting, and photography.

This program is funded, in part, by generous support from the Renate, Hans and Maria Hofmann Trust.

About Fountain House Gallery (formerly Fountain Gallery)

Fountain House Gallery is the premier venue in New York City representing artists living and working with mental illness. Founded by Fountain House in 2000 as a not-for-profit exhibition space for its member-artists, the Gallery sells original artworks and collaborates with a wide network of artists, curators and cultural institutions. Embracing artists who are emerging or established, trained or self-taught, Fountain House Gallery cultivates artistic growth and makes a vital contribution to the New York arts community. www.fountainhousegallery.org
