Fountain House Gallery Presents “Small Works: $100 & Under”*On view: November 1 – December 21, 2018/Reception: November 1, 6-8 p.m.

NEW YORK CITY – Fountain House Gallery, located at 702 Ninth Avenue and representing artists living with mental illness, announces the upcoming show, “Small Works: $100 & Under.” The exhibition will open with a Reception on November 1, 2018, from 6:00 p.m. to 8:00 p.m., and will remain on view through December 21, 2018.

This annual show features dozens of small-scale works, sized at 6 by 6 inches or less and priced at $100 or under. Pieces can be purchased “off the wall” and fit conveniently in a tote bag or briefcase. Among the mediums represented are collage and mixed media, acrylic and watercolor painting, digital art and photography, and paper weaving and fiber pieces. New this year: Ceramics, jewelry, and holiday ornaments are included in the mix.

This program is funded, in part, by generous support from the Hearst Foundation, Inc., the Renate, Hans and Maria Hofmann Trust, the Robert Rauschenberg Foundation, the David Rockefeller Fund, and the Laurie M. Tisch Illumination Fund.

About Fountain House Gallery

Fountain House Gallery and Studio provides an environment in which artists living with mental illness can express their creative visions and exhibit their work. Founded by Fountain House in 2000 as a not-for-profit exhibition space for its member-artists living and working with mental illness, the Gallery sells original artworks and collaborates with a wide network of artists, curators and cultural institutions. Embracing artists who are emerging or established, trained or self-taught, Fountain House Gallery cultivates artistic growth, makes a vital contribution to the New York arts community, and challenges the stigma surrounding mental illness.
