Fountain House Gallery's "Small Works: $100 & Under" Presents Original, Affordable Artworks for Collecting, Holiday Gift-Giving

On view (online): November 19 – December 23, 2020

NEW YORK CITY – Fountain House Gallery – the premier venue in New York City representing artists with mental illness – today announced the upcoming exhibition *Small Works: \$100 & Under*. This show, an annual Gallery event, will remain on view online from November 19, 2020 through December 23, 2020.

Small Works offers more than 200 pieces of original art, sized at 6 by 6 inches or smaller and priced at $100 or less. Over the years, this exhibition has become a perennial favorite with art lovers, collectors, and holiday shoppers. This year, as Fountain House Gallery remains closed to the public due to the pandemic, works can be acquired by contacting the Gallery via the online exhibition page. Options for "safe" pick-up or delivery of purchased works are available.

Small works can have a big impact, lending themselves to hanging solo or in groupings. Fountain House Gallery artists, who customarily work in a variety of mediums and sizes, continue to embrace the opportunity to create in the scaled-down format of this yearly show, unleashing their talents on fresh mediums and ideas.

Among the mediums represented in Small Works are acrylic, mixed media, fabric, and digital photography, with ceramic and jewelry pieces included in the mix.

The online exhibition can be viewed at: <https://www.artsy.net/show/fountain-house-gallery-small-works-100-dollars-and-under-2>.

This program is funded, in part, by generous support from the Hearst Foundation, Inc., the Renate, Hans and Maria Hofmann Trust, the Robert Rauschenberg Foundation, the David Rockefeller Fund, and the Laurie M. Tisch Illumination Fund.

About Fountain House Gallery

Fountain House Gallery and Studio provides an environment where artists living with mental illness can express their creative visions and exhibit their work. Founded by Fountain House in 2000, the storefront Gallery in Manhattan sells original artworks and collaborates with a wide network of artists, curators and cultural institutions. The Studio, located in Long Island City, is a collaborative workspace that furthers the professional practice of our artists. Embracing artists who are emerging or established, trained or self-taught, Fountain House Gallery cultivates artistic growth, makes a vital contribution to the New York arts community, and challenges the stigma surrounding mental illness.
